

Tentative Planned Sessions – as of 4/15/09 –

Specialty Grains Conference Field Tours --

Thursday, September 3, 2009

Optional Post Conference IP, Grain Processing and Research Tour. Escorted bus tour. Tentative plans -

- Poet Bio-refining ethanol plant - Hudson, SD plant, south of Sioux Falls
- South Dakota State University crop research facilities and plots, Brookings, S.D.
- Other stops to be determined.
- Return to Sioux Falls Sheraton mid-to-late afternoon.

Monday, August 31, 2009 –

Special Field Tours for participating Foreign Delegations and Conference attendees arriving in Minneapolis, MN and traveling – escorted bus transportation provided – to Sioux Falls, S.D. 9:00 a.m. departure –

- Soy and Soyfoods Delegation Tour– escorted tour of IP soy grain processing plant, St. Peter, MN (tentative); Knewton Soy Products soybean field production and handling operations, Good Thunder, MN; University of Minnesota Extension Soybean Research Plots, Lamberton, MN with Dr. James Orf, internationally known food grade soybean breeder and agronomist.
- Corn and DDGS Feed Grains Delegation Tour– escorted tour of ethanol plant, DDGS livestock feeding operation, corn production farm and research plots. Sites TBD.
- Arrive- Sioux Falls Sheraton Hotel, Sioux Falls, S.D. approx. 5:30 p.m.